

Vision Series Week 3 Study Questions

What are some essential characteristics of biblical community?

Read Hebrews 10:23-25

What is the confession of our hope? What Scriptures could you point to that describe our hope?

Why is it important for community to be based upon this hope?

Why does the writer tell us to hold fast to the hope? How do we sometimes let go of the hope we have?

What do you think it means to “spur one another on to love and good works”?

In the next 24 hours, what are three ways you can spur another Christian on?

Why is it easy to get in the habit of not meeting together?

Why is this type of biblical community important? What might we be blind to if we attempt to live out our faith by ourselves?

Other than Sunday, how else can believers meet together throughout the week?
How you can be more intentional about regularly meeting with other believers?

If you know someone who is drifting in their relationship with God, how could you encourage them in their faith?

In this passage, we have both the vertical relationship (us and God) and the horizontal relationship discussed. While you can always grow in both, which one do you really feel you need to cultivate this week?
